

"Thank you for choosing Wolf Bay. I know you have a lot of dining choices. I am honored you chose to dine with us. Because of you, I'm able to carry on the legacy my parents started. They believed that great food requires hard work and attention to detail. As always your seafood is hand battered and cooked to order. Our recipes are from scratch. We hope you enjoy your meal and come back again to be part of the Wolf Bay tradition." — Char Haber

Our Story

Wolf Bay is a family-owned Gulf Coast tradition known for its high quality fresh seafood and local ambience. Its rich history began as a bait shop nestled in the trees along the beautiful waters of Wolf Bay in Elberta, Alabama in the 1940's. Charlie and Sandra Wrape purchased it in 1973. Through their hard work and determination, they began serving a full menu of delicious seafood recipes – many of which were created by ladies that worked there or lived nearby.

Although the restaurant was "off the beaten path," it soon became a favorite among the locals and area visitors alike. On December 7, 2008 the original lodge was completely destroyed by fire. It has since reopened in two locations – Foley, Alabama and Orange Beach, Alabama, where it continues to be family owned and operated by Charlie and Sandy's daughter, Char Haber. Wolf Bay is known for being a local seafood tradition, and prides itself in serving high quality, fresh meals in a family-friendly atmosphere.

Furthermore, many of the dishes enjoyed today are recipes from the Wrapes' original menu including the seafood gumbo, crab stuffing, stuffed shrimp, stuffed whole flounder and many of our salad dressings.
